

Account Manager

Up to £35K + profit share powerful brands

bold ambitions

We're looking for an experienced and organised Account Manager to join our ambitious agency and grow within a strategic branding environment.

Someone who is a born organiser and loves helping colleagues and clients to manage large programmes of work efficiently and effectively.

Ideally naturally inquisitive and resourceful, with a proven track record of successfully delivering client projects across a variety of sectors.

We guarantee you'll never be bored!

This role would suit someone with experience of a busy project-based environment, who can take ownership of client relationships and juggle multiple, and often complex implementation projects at any one time.

As a strategic branding agency we embrace client challenges and are comfortable with ambiguity and change. Which means it's not just a case of brief in/work out: our clients regard us as true partners and a genuine extension of their team. We often help them to define the brief itself.

A pivotal part of this role is to co-ordinate and schedule the necessary resource required to deliver client projects, using our agency workflow systems and delighting clients with a consistently high standard of work.

Our ideal candidate is someone who:

- Has 3+ years experience as an Account Manager in an integrated or creative agency
- Possesses excellent project management skills, co-ordinating agency resources to deliver on time and within budget
- Has delivered many digital-first projects, and understands the online space
- Develops superb relationships, with clients and colleagues alike, delivering a great service, balanced with a commercial mindset
- Has excellent verbal and written communication skills, strong at proof-reading skills and is all over the detail
- Has an interest in attaining a CIM qualification, or equivalent
